

Principal's Message

Assalamu-Alaikum Wahramatullahi Wabarkatuh

Alhamdulillah, the last ten days of Ramadan are fast approaching. Let us all make the most of this auspicious opportunity to receive abundant rewards which Allah (SWT) has promised us for our sincere efforts and acts of worship.

In celebrating and concluding the month of Ramadan, I would like to invite all our parents, guardians and the community, to the College's Community Iftaar Dinner to be held on Saturday, 17 June 2017, organised and prepared by our dedicated Parents and Friends (P&F) Association. Sheikh Yahya Ibrahim will be presenting 'A Life-Changing Ramadan' lecture at 4:00pm followed by the Community Iftaar in the Multi-purpose Hall, Insha-Allah.

The Multi-purpose Hall once again will be adorned with beautiful class displays depicting various themes of Ramadan. The College community is also invited to attend the College's Special Ramadan Assembly to be held on Tuesday, 20 June 2017 at 9:00am-11:30am. There will be wonderful class presentations for all to enjoy. Students and staff have been working very hard preparing for the displays and the Ramadan Assembly. I take this opportunity to thank all students, staff and the P&F for their tremendous efforts and hard work to make Ramadan at LIC a very special annual event.

Students and staff will be given two days off to enjoy Eid celebrations. Accordingly, the College will be closed on Monday, 26 June 2017 and on Tuesday, 27 June 2017. To make the necessary adjustment for the extra day holiday, please note that school will finish at 3:35pm (instead of 3:30pm) during Term Three.

As Laylatul Qadr (the Night of Power) is described in the Quran as, "Better than a thousand months" (97:3), any acts of worship performed on this night are better than acts performed in one thousand months which do not contain the night of Qadr. Therefore, let us all embrace the last ten days with determination and devotion, Insha-Allah.

ENGLISH

It has been a really eventful term for our students in the English Department. This is what we have been doing in our English classes. Year 7 students sat for their much-anticipated Naplan tests, Year 8 students started working on their 'Stolen Generation' research project and Year 12 English ATAR students are working day and night, with their eyes on the prize for the WACE exam.

Naplan came and went for Year 7 students. In Week 5, we enjoyed a reenergising River cruise and an excursion to Sir James Mitchell Park to reward our students for all the dedication and hard work over the past few months.

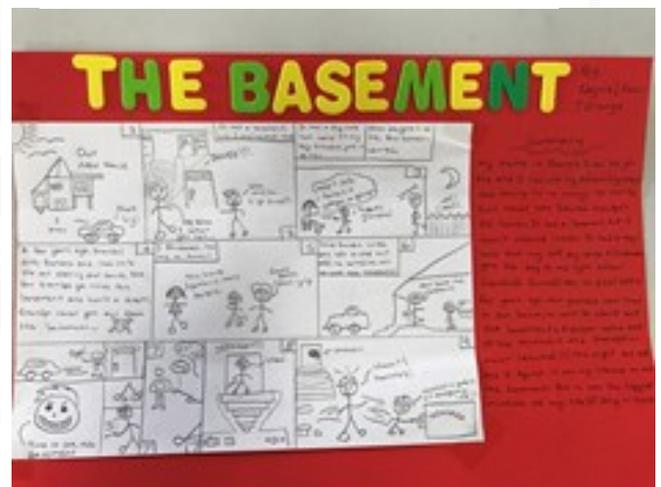

Year 7 students also created beautiful picture books reflecting their understanding of visual literacy and narrative writing.

This term, Year 8 read the famous novel by Doris Pilkington, Following the Rabbit Proof Fence, and watched the film based on this book. Students listened to the testimonies of the 'Stolen Generation' and researched their historical contexts to grasp the enormity and profundity of this tragic chapter of Australian history. Harmony Week's incursion of the Aboriginal presenter, Mr Russell Dawson ('Uncle Russel'), proved to be an excellent springboard for their learning of the Indigenous language, culture and tradition. Students created very thoughtful collages to represent their learning of the topic. This helped them understand how discrimination and racism can have long-lasting effects on vulnerable communities. They also learnt that the purpose of their education is to use their sense of social justice and stand up for the rights of the minorities.

The English Department also incorporates Cyber Safety and Social Media Awareness in our daily learning programs. I am including some words of advice from Maggie Dent that will enlighten us all in these challenging times.

Hope you all are enjoying your Ramadan.

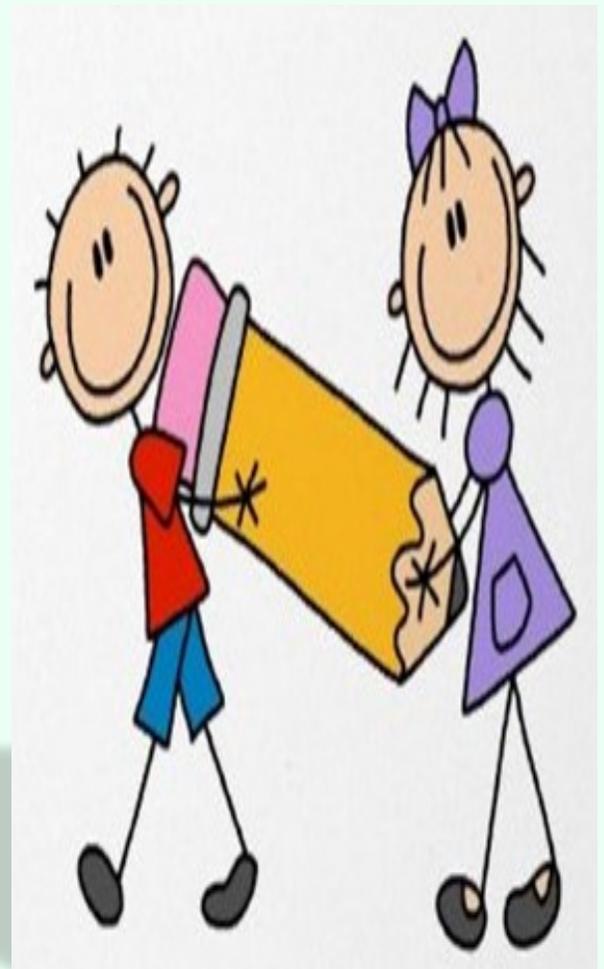

Creative Writing Time in Pre-primary Green

Term 2 Focus

A significant part of the English focus in Literacy has been on students using their knowledge and understanding of the Jolly Phonics letter/sounds, simple words and sight words to construct complete and meaningful phrases and sentences. In the process, students have also been learning about, and developed a good understanding of punctuation. As such, a substantial amount of class time has been dedicated to creative writing and this part of the day is referred as 'Creative Writing Time'. During this time, I have observed students becoming more confident and enthused creative writers, and their writing skills have quickly and excitingly developed and flourished.

With the ongoing commitment from parents to assist their children at home to develop crucial writing skills, students have thrived. Thank you to all parents for your enthusiasm and continued positive involvement and support. Your ongoing support to help your child achieve the very best possible learning outcomes is sincerely appreciated.

Well done to all Pre-Primary Green students, I am so very proud of you. Keep up the fantastic effort! I can hardly wait to see what you will achieve in Semester Two!

Busy, busy

Busy, busy, busy! Our classroom is an extremely busy but productive room. Students work hard, are very cooperative and look forward to new and exciting projects.

One major project this term was a special gift to that very special woman in our lives...our Mother! Students produced a 'no sew' pillow and a beautiful 3D rose bud card. Both, boys and girls measured, cut, stuffed and tied knots and produced a pillow by recycling old T shirts.

With the Blessed Month of Ramadan now upon us, students are very excited with their individual production of their Ramadan Placemats. As a class we are working on a model of 'Maqaam Ibraaheem'. We have been very lucky to have had a very generous parent give his time and materials to build the base for our Ramadan project and the students have been busy painting and putting together the rest of it. I am so proud of the dedication and effort towards this project. Hopefully, you will all come to see the completed model when it goes on display in the school hall in Week 9.
